The debate discussion will focus on the INATBA Identity Working Group’s Position Paper on Decentralised Identity published in November 2020. Stakeholders will be invited to look at current adoption of Decentralised Identity through the lens of the described ideal scenario and contribute to identifying next steps and understanding political/regulatory buy-in to the idea and potential barriers.

Moderator

Kai Wagner
INATBA Identity Working Group Co-Chair, Board Member on INATBA’s Board of Directors, Partnership Development & Regulatory Affairs at Jolocom

Panelists

Daniël Du Seuil
Convener of the European Self Sovereign Identity Framework within the European Blockchain Partnership, National Belgian SSI Project Leader, Project Leader at Digipolis Ghent

Anil John
Technical Director of the Department of Homeland Security Science & Technology Silicon Valley Innovation Program (SVIP)

Karyl Fowler
CEO and Co-Founder of Transmute, Member of the Decentralized Identity Foundation Steering Committee

Dr. Loretta Anania
Scientific Officer at European Commission’s DG Connect, Researching immersive media, future and emerging technologies, AI, and SSI internet infrastructure innovation

Agenda

16:00-16:10 Welcome and Introductions
16:10-16:30 Presentation of the Identity Working Group Position Paper
16:30-17:30 Panel Discussion (Q&A with the audience)
17:30-17:45 Summary and Farewell

Register Here

Scan for More Info: